

Natalie is a 36 year old woman, self-referred. She is frustrated and bored with her work as an office clerk and doesn't know what to do. You are a practitioner in a private agency specializing in transition planning.

Section 6

As she prepares to leave the room at the end of Session 5, Natalie says, "The registration deadline for this program is the end of next week. What should I do?" How do you respond?

(CHOOSE ONLY ONE in this Section)

- A) You should go ahead and register
- B) I don't think you're ready to make that decision yet
- C) It's your decision, and I support you in making a choice
- D) We don't have time to discuss this now, but we can discuss this later next week
